	I shared my opinions and ideas about the artwork we saw in the gallery. I was involved and enthusiastic in the workshop.
	I asked questions about the art I saw. I listened to other people's questions. The answers I heard helped develop my understanding
	When I looked carefully at the art in the gallery, It helped me understand how it can inspire discussion and ideas about an idea or theme
	There is a connection between the art I saw and some of the following: a personal experience, a story I've read, a movie I have seen, something that happened in the world or on the news, something I learned about in school, or my culture.
	I carefully followed the advice of the Gallery Educator about techniques and how to create the art. I used the art tools and materials appropriately and with respect.
	In my artwork in the studio, I used my own ideas, I was pleased my work is different from other people's, my artwork is meaningful to me
	In the studio if I got stuck, I used my knowledge and imagination to solve the problem. Now I know how to improve my work independently.
My artwork is my own and well planned. People can see a message or main idea in my art. They know what my art is about.
